Local Democrats have started a drive toward helping wipe out the $1,500,000 deficit of the Democratic national committee and expect to raise a considerable sum to forward to headquarters. The Ledger & Times is cooperating with them in accepting subscriptions and all those who contribute as much as $2.00 will be given a copy of Governor Smith's book on the campaign.

Seven have already contributed. They are: Ben Grogan, W. A. Marberry, J. A. Rowlett, Jr., Jack Farmer, E. J. Beale, Wells Purdum and Harry I. Sield. All contributions will be acknowledged through the paper and the Ledger & Times will order the books from national headquarters and distribute them.

Governor Smith, in a recent radio address, appealed to the rank and file of the Democratic party to help wipe out the deficit of $1,500,000 and since that time several hundred thousand dollars have been received, most of it in small amounts.

Entire World Will Hear Voice of Herbert Hoover Take Oath as 31st President of the United States

The voice of Herbert Hoover, delivering his inaugural address March 4, will be heard around the globe.

A detailed description of the proceedings including an eye-witness story of the inaugural parade four miles long will be heard by fifty million listeners in the United States, and millions of others in foreign countries.

"Recently we have had a striking demonstration of international broadcasting," says M. H. Aylesworth of the National Broadcasting Company. "A speech by the President of the United States, heard all over this country, was followed, within a few seconds, by a program coming to us from England."

American programs are heard with regularity in Europe, Asia, Africa, Australia, New Zealand and South America. We have arrived at the point where radio communication to the masses of other nations is an accomplished fact.

Frequently British programs are heard here with almost the clarity of a local station. These programs are received here in the late afternoon, although they are produced in England five hours later in the evening—

London time.

"On March 4, the next President and Vice President of the United States will be inducted into office. A detailed description of the proceedings will be sent to virtually every nation in the civilized world, and the voice of our chief executive will be heard around the earth, through rebroadcasts by powerful foreign stations.

"As a part of the inaugural ceremonies there will be a parade four miles long, in which representatives will participate. Every state in the Union will have a delegation among the 20,000 persons who will participate."

"The radio audience in the United States and abroad, will hear descriptions of the parts that their representatives have in the celebration. They will hear the bands, the bugles and the fire drum corps as they pass the reviewing stand in which will be seated the newly inaugurated President and his official party."

All the color and enthusiasm of this quadrennial American ceremony will be brought to the world; all the solemnity of the occasion when a new President stands with his hand on the Bible and takes the oath of office.

"The world will hear the voice of America, and we believe that the world will be more closely cemented to us through such broadcasts international as these."

COUNTY NET CROWN WON BY ALMO FIVE HERE FRIDAY NIGHT

Defeat New Concord Quint 25 to 17 in Finals; Tigers Beat Training School.

TROPHIES ARE AWARDED: SPORTSMANSHIP IS HIGH

Playing a speedy and accurate game of ball in the second and third quarters, Almo high school won the annual Calloway county high school tournament and the championship crown here Friday night before a large crowd in the college auditorium. New Concord was the opponent and the score was 25-17.

In the consolation finals, the Murray high school Tiger defeated the Improver Training School Quint, which was the dark horse of the tournament, 41 to 16.

Hurt was again the luminary for his team in the final game, scoring 17 points and forming the keystone of the north county five's floor play. A peculiar feature of the game was that the first four men in New Concord's line-up scored four points each: Christian, Bell, Fox and Moody.

New Concord took an early 6 to 1 lead but Almo led 7 to 6 at the quarter and drew rapidly away in the second period eight points while Concord could get but a foul goal. Concord outplayed Almo in the last period but it was too late to save the game from the fire.

Though badly outscored the Training School boys fought valiantly in the night's preliminary. The Doran twins and Chambers played a steady game for the Tigers.

The Almo team won possession of the W. T. Sledge & Co. trophy, a beautiful silver basketball, and will have the honor of the team and the date engraved on it. They also won the high-grade basketball which was donated by the Murray Ice Cream company, and with which the final game was played.

Good crowds attended all the games of the tournament and support of the various teams was enthusiastic. All the players were complimented for their splendid sportsmanship during the games.

Almo-Murray Game

Almo's victory over Murray was an upset so far as the score was concerned as the home team were trailing 10 to 23 within five minutes of the game's close and only avoided an overwhelming defeat by a last rally that netted them six points.

Almo got off to a brilliant start while the locals were off form and led 19 to 1 at the quarter. The north county lads were playing "heads up" ball while the Tiger seemed unable to arouse herself and was delayed by a ball that eluded all casts at the basket.

Hurt and Schroeder led the Almo attack while Holland played a brilliant defensive game. T. Doran scored the largest part of Murray's points while Grimes played a whale of a game at standing guard.

Seek Robbins Sunday; Sleds Appear Tuesday

Murray had a splendid example of the Weather Man's capriciousness this week within forty-eight hours. Fars attuned Sunday afternoon to hear the chirp of the first Robin of spring hear the shouts of merry youngsters on sleds Tuesday night.

Sunday afternoon, old sol came out with promises that the back-bone of winter had been broken and cars and strollers appeared like magic all over the city, but it was the falsest of false alarms and King Winter's counter attack Tuesday brought out sleds and S. O. S. calls for the coal bin.

Truly, we have a consistent climate in Western Kentucky.

Plants are automatically irrigated in a self-watering flowerpot recently introduced. It has double walls, the inner being of a porous material and the outer one a waterproof substance. The two are united at the top by means of a flanged rim, and the space between is filled with water.

For drying clothes or warming clothes, an electric clothes dryer, introduced by the Veal and apartment, has been set into operation simply by turning a switch and has a means for ventilating the contents at the same time. Heated air is pulled from the top of the drier, down through the clothes, but the action is accomplished without fans or other moving parts.

Members of the Wayne County Poultry Association will have 2 flocks accredited this year.

LEAF DELIVERIES HURT BY WEATHER PRICES ARE LOWER

164,215 Pounds Bring Average of $12.35 Compared to $12.56 Last Week.

LIGHT SALES EXPECTED—FOR REMAINDER OF WEEK

Sleet and snow put a virtual halt on the Murray Tobacco market this week, especially on Tuesday and Wednesday when the condition of the roads made deliveries extremely difficult.

The prices were slightly weaker than last week, the average being $12.35 as compared to $12.56 last week.

The season's average remains the same, however, $12.33, as the small quantity sold was insufficient to bring down the average.

Farmer's floor sold 42,755 pounds this week at an average of $13.26; 51,515 pounds went over the Outland floor at an average of $12.98 and Veale's sold 69,945 at an average of $11.38. Total sales were 164,215 pounds.

Season's totals and averages for the three floors are: Farmer's, 1,091,155 pounds, $12.43 average; Outland's, 860,220 pounds, $12.46 average; Veale's, 1,070,190 pounds, $12.73 average.

On account of the snow, sales the remainder of this week are expected to be lightest of the season.

Elder Brandon is well known here where he attended the Murray Bible School and was afterward sent to the Amazon Valley Faith Mission by the Murray Baptist church. Many friends here of the family deeply sympathize with them in their bereavement.

The school car going from Hardin to Murray Normal in climbing the hill near Elmus Trevathans, just south of Rock House creek, slipped backwards down the hill and turned over in the deep ditch. Those in the car were Bryan Raines and wife, Charles Pace, Misses Kathleen Pace, Beatrice Jones and Mildred Trevathan all escaped without being hurt except Mrs. Raines who received a small cut on the knee, but all received a terrible jolt. Bro. Raines nerves gave way after it was all over but they were fortunate in getting out without being seriously hurt. The car was not damaged.

OBITUARY

Grant Workman born June 4 1864 and departed this life May 1, 1928 age 63 years, 11 months, 26 days.

He was married to Ada Garrison Dec. 24, 1885. To this union was born 6 children, 3 boys and 3 girls, one son preceded him to the grave a short while ago. He leaves a wife, 5 children and 14 grandchildren, 1 great grandchild and a host of relatives and friends to mourn his death.

At the age of 17 he professed faith in Christ and joined the Missionary Baptist church at Elm Grove. His illness was of great suffering yet he bore them without complaint and with courage that was Christ-like. It was hard to give him up but we must remember he is better off and has gone to live with God.

His disease was a great mystery to all. Medical science did all it could, loving hands were always ready to give him every aid, but with all this the grim reaper, death, claimed him as its own.

Bloom brightly sweet roses bloom brightly above.

The mound that endures the form that we love.

Diffuse o'er his bosom the sweetest perfume.

From each glowing blossom that smiles o'er his tomb.

Announcement

We have purchased from the McHenry-Millhouse Mfg. Co., manufacturers of Buckskin Roofing Products, a franchise to operate an Arro Lock Roofing Co. by virtue of which, we become the authorized dealers and applicators of Arro Lock and Supertite Shingles.

This franchise furnishes us with a standard method of applying these and two other style roofs and on which roofs, when we apply, we give a Ten Year Certificate of Guarantee against leakage. This method of application is the result of McHenry-Millhouse Manufacturing Company's nearly thirty years of experience in the manufacture and application of asphalt roofing in co-operation with the three largest application roofing companies in the U. S. A. and has been successful in every place tried according to these methods.

Believing as we do, that this is the only business way for the home owner to own or buy his roof, is our reason for buying this franchise.

We have thoroughly competent and trained estimator to estimate your roof—a man who knows what is necessary to do to make your roof a waterproof roof—and then make the lowest possible price for the job complete; and remember that a man who does not know just exactly what to do to make you a wind and waterproof roof, cannot specify the materials necessary to build this kind of roof. Sometimes the omission of extra dollars worth of materials at the proper places will render an otherwise $300.00 roof a curse instead of a joy. Also remember that when you have purchased a roof you cannot trade in at the end of thirty, sixty or ninety days, because of dissatisfaction, but that it is a permanent investment so it is important that you make no error in the selection of your roof.

We make estimates without obligation on your part. Let us make you an estimate on a new roof.

MOVIES

Hoot Gibson, the daredevil hero of a thousand and one thrills, returns here for another engagement of furious entertainment with the opening of "The Danger Rider," his most recent Universal picture, at the Capitol Theatre Friday and Saturday. The most popular Western actor of the day, Gibson, is supported by a fine cast. Eugene Gilbert appears in the feminine lead with Reeves Eason, Monte Muffague, King, Frank Beale and Milla Davis in the supporting cast. Henry MacRea directed from a story by Wynne James.

One hundred and twenty airplanes were used by William Wellman one of Hollywood's youngest directors, in filming the battle scenes of the St. Mihiel drive for "Wings," the great Paramount war aviation spectacle which will open an engagement at the Capitol Theatre on Monday and Tuesday night.

"Wings," which was nearly two years in making, is America's story of the World War from the aviator's standpoint. The cream of America's aviators were gathered together for the air battle picture, which was taken on location at Leon Springs, near San Antonio, Texas. There a battle area of five square miles was reconstructed in exact duplicate of the St. Mihiel region in France.

Pajamas are worn for all indoor occasions. The tea pajama suit—the lounging pajamas—the breakfast pajamas and the comfy sleeping pajamas.

In "A Lady of Chance," the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer picture coming Thursday to the Capitol Theatre, Norma Shearer and Gwen Lee appear in some of the latest modes.

In one episode of the picture Miss Shearer stays overnight with Gwen Lee and for the occasion borrows Miss Lee's pajama suit of flesh crepe trimmed with bands of black and red crepe. The jacket is finished with a turnover collar and the white sleeves are wide and banded at the wrists with black and red. The same band of black and red is carried out on the cuffs of the trousers.

Western Girls Triumph Here Friday Night, 27-20

The Western girls from Bowling Green dealt a hard blow to the aspirations of Miss Allison's quintet at the college Saturday night when they took a strenuous battle, 27-20. Though the visitors showed the benefit of many years of girls' basketball at Bowling Green, the Murray girls gave them a good fight though being slightly outplayed more than the score indicates.

"AMAZED," SAYS LADY OF 75; IN-DORSES KONJOLA

"This New Medicine First I Found In 23 Years That Did Me Any Good," She Relates.

MRS. M. E. STAMPER

"Just think of suffering for 23 years without finding a particle of relief until now, and Konjola is the medicine I should have had in the first place; it was the first and only one to help me," said Mrs. M. E. Stamper, 233 East Twelfth Street, Cincinnati, Ohio.

"My stomach and kidneys caused most of my trouble. Indigestion followed every meal and attacks of gastritis were frequent. Weak kidneys left my body full of poisons and aches and pains resulted. I lost much sleep and my left ankle was badly swollen. My nerves cracked under the strain and I worried constantly because nothing touched my case.

"A friend advised me to try Konjola and his endorsement was so sincere that I made up my mind to do so. Three bottles of this medicine made a wonderful change in me. Within two more weeks I was practically well, free from pains and with all my organs functioning as they should. I shall never cease to praise this marvelous medicine; I am simply amazed at its powers."

Konjola is sold in Murray, Ky. at Dale, Stubblefield & Co. drug store, and by all the best druggists in all towns throughout this entire section.

Fuel system of the new Ford has been designed for reliability and long service

THE practical value of Ford simplicity of design is especially apparent in the fuel system.

The gasoline tank is built integral with the cowl and is unusually sturdy because it is made of heavy sheet steel, tinned to prevent rust or corrosion. An additional factor of strength is the fact that it is composed of only two pieces, instead of three or four, and is electrically welded—not soldered.

Because of the location of the tank, the entire flow of gasoline is an even, natural flow—following the natural law of gravity. This is the simplest and most direct way of supplying gasoline to the carburetor without variations in pressure. The gasoline feed pipe of the new Ford is only 18 inches long and is easily accessible all the way.

The gasoline passes from the tank to the carburetor through a filter or sediment bulb mounted on the steel dash which separates the gasoline tank from the engine.

The carburetor is specially designed and has been built to deliver many thousands of miles of good service.

Since all adjustments are fixed except the needle valve and idler, there is practically nothing to get out of order.

The choke rod on the dash acts as a primer and also as a regulator of your gasoline mixture. The new hot spot manifold insures complete vaporization of the gasoline before it enters the combustion chamber of the engine.

As a matter of fact, the fuel system of the new Ford is so simple in design and so carefully made that it requires very little service attention.

The filter or sediment bulb should be cleaned at regular intervals and the carburetor screen removed and washed in gasoline. Occasionally the drain plug at the bottom of the carburetor should be removed and the carburetor drained for a few seconds.

Have your Ford dealer look after these important little details for you when you have the car oiled and greased. A thorough, periodic checking-up costs little, but it has a great deal to do with long life and continuously good performance.

Kirksey School News
(By Wilder P. Paige)

(Too Late for Last Week)

The two classes in Vocational Agriculture accompanied by their new instructor, Prof. Campbell, attended the tobacco speaking held at Murray last Thursday and Friday. The students took notes on the speeches and gained considerable information. Prof. Hurt and one of the former students of Kirksey, Raymond D. McCallon, have organized a typing and revising syndicate. A multigraph has been purchased and they are prepared to do big business. Mr. McCallon has recently completed a business course taken at the Bowling Green Business College and is an efficient typist. Mr. Hurt, the senior partner in the concern, does the revising and correcting.

The Kirksey Blue and White met defeat at the hands of Murray High School last Saturday night. The score was 24 to 16. The game was played on the new college gym and was the curtain raiser to the game between the Thoroughbreds and Lambuth. The Blue and White got off to a slow start in the first half and the half ended four to fifteen in favor of the Tigers. It may have seemed to the Blue and White that they were hopelessly swamped but that fighting determination that is characteristic of K. H. S. manifested itself and the victory was made a terrible one.

In the last half, holding the Murray quintet to nine points in the last half while they chalked up twelve. The Doran twins were the batteries for the Tigers while Venable and Ross did some excellent playing for the losers.

Prof. Campbell is planning quite a number of improvements in the agricultural department. The library will be card-filed and a new bulletin system inaugurated.

A midsize basketball team has been organized by one of the members of the basketball squad. Arrangement for its has been made and very soon the little fellows will begin their basketball education.

A try-out for selecting the school in the declamatory contests will be held February 21.

The Literary Societies held their regular meetings Thursday morning. Mr. Campbell took Mr. Wrahters place as sponsor of the Lindberg Society.

The basketball squad has new uniforms. The breast of the jerseys are embossed with the eagle. The name "Eagles" has been adopted for the Blue and White. The team has been looking forward to this event for several months. Thus far the Blue and White has lived up to the things that are implied in the colors of their suits. The white stands for pureness and honesty; the blue for true-blue, straight-from-the-shoulder sportsmanship. We are proud of what our colors stand for and try to live up to their traditions.

Jessie Bruce Cunningham, Ray Gingles Starks and Frank Peterson will debate Faxon and Lynn Grove in the near future. We will have the affirmative in these debates.

An Oklahoma
Mother Says:

"BLACK-DRAUGHT is a fine medicine to give to children. I use it for mine whenever I need to give them a laxative. They don't mind taking it when I make it into a tea, and it quickly relieves constipation and the bad symptoms which come from it. I can recommend it to other mothers, for I have found it useful in my home."

"When I was a child my mother gave it to me whenever I complained of not feeling well. I have always taken it for upset stomach and constipation. It is about the only medicine I have to take. A few doses of Black Draught, now and then, keep my system in order. My husband takes it, too. I hardly see how I could keep house without Black Draught. It has become a standby with us, in keeping the children and ourselves well."—Mrs. Luther Brasfield, Claremore, Okla.

YOU CAN BURN UP THE ROAD
BUT NOT THIS OIL

Fill up with Shell Motor Oil. Hit the open road. Step on it. Force the car for all it's worth with never a fear or worry about lubrication. Shell Motor Oil will "stand up" and protect your motor every inch of the way.

It takes a real motor oil to "stand the gas" when you speed for hours at a stretch—to maintain a smooth, unbroken film in the face of devastating heat—to protect the whirling metal surfaces of your engine against the attacks of friction. However, Shell Motor Oil is deliberately made to meet these conditions of modern motoring and is more than equal to the task.

The specially selected crude oils which form its base—the low temperature refining process used—the specifications to which it is refined, combine to give Shell Motor Oil just the right body. It flows freely in cold weather—making starting easy—and reaches every moving surface instantly. Yet is it heavy enough to come through heat and friction unharmed—a constant protection to your motor and pocketbook.
